

Declaration and Deed of Trust (non-statutory)

for use with an application for a National Deposit Friendly Society Limited policy or with an existing National Deposit Friendly Society Limited policy

This Trust may be used with single or joint applications/policies and with new applications or existing policies.

Standard trust forms are designed to be suitable for the majority of people wishing to establish such trusts, but it must be recognised that they cannot be suitable for all, and, therefore, prospective settlors or donors are encouraged to seek independent legal advice before establishing such schemes.

NB In this Trust form and accompanying notes,

- (i) use of the singular includes the plural, and vice versa*
- (ii) use of any gender includes the other genders*

Points to be considered

Before writing a policy in trust, you must ensure that the trust provisions meet the requirements and intentions of the Settlor as it may be difficult, impossible or expensive to vary the provisions at a later date. The person applying for the policy (or the current policyholder, if the policy has already been issued) will be the Settlor.

It should be borne in mind that a policy held in trust has certain limitations. There are many advantages of having a policy issued under a trust. For example:

- (a) claims can be settled more quickly, as payment of the claim can be made before the granting of Probate or issuing of Letters of Administration
- (b) the proceeds from the policy are not aggregated with the estate of the Settlor on death and are therefore not subject to inheritance tax when paid
- (c) a policy held in trust will usually be safe from creditors unless the Settlor effected the policy whilst insolvent or knowing of his potential insolvency

Beneficiaries

The class of persons who can benefit under this Trust (called the Beneficiaries) is not restricted by legislation as is the case with statutory trusts.

The Settlor has a choice of the beneficial trust provisions under this Trust: the policy can be held for the absolute benefit of named individuals (in which case the Settlor must name the Beneficiaries and, if more than one, their respective shares) or on discretionary trusts. In the latter case the Settlor, during his or her lifetime, and, after his or her death, the Trustees, will decide the person(s) from the class of Beneficiaries specified in the Trust who will receive the benefits.

Trustees - selection and qualification

It is recommended that more than one Trustee is appointed. Trustees are appointed at outset and may include:

- (a) the Settlor (both Settlers in joint cases)
- (b) the Settlor's spouse or registered civil partner
- (c) any other person aged 18 or over who is prepared to accept the responsibility of seeing that the benefits of the policy are applied in accordance with the provisions of the Trust
- (d) a bank, solicitor, accountant or other corporation. They may, however, charge for the service.

Further Trustees can be appointed by the Settlor and, after his or her death, the Trustees. Please refer to our Trust Guide for further information on who can be a trustee and how many trustees are recommended.
