- At least once a year, review its own performance, constitution, composition and terms of reference to assess its operational effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

Authority

The Committee is authorised by the Board:

- To seek any information it requires from any employee or director of the Society in order to perform its duties.
- To obtain, at the Society's expense, external legal or other professional advice on any matter falling within its terms of reference.
- To call on any employee to attend a meeting of the Committee as and when required.
- To report in the Annual Report any disagreement between the Committee and the Board that cannot be resolved.

RISK AND COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE

Purpose

The principal role of the Committee is to assist the Board in its leadership and oversight of risk across the Society including the understanding and, where appropriate, optimisation of current and future risk strategy, overall risk appetite and tolerance, risk management framework including risk policies, process and controls, and the promotion of a risk awareness culture throughout the Society.

Membership

Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board in consultation with the Chairman. The Committee shall be made up of at least four members, with at least two being independent Non-Executive Directors.

Members of the Committee shall be two Non-Executive Directors, at least one of whom is considered by the Board to have recent and relevant risk management experience, the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director (Finance, Risk & HR)

Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals including other directors, Chief Actuary and representatives of the risk function, compliance, and internal and external audit may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when deemed appropriate and necessary by the Board or its Risk & Compliance Committee.

Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years (unless the Director is subject to annual election), which may be extended for two additional three-year periods and annually thereafter, provided the Non-Executive Director remains independent, as determined by the Board, throughout the period of appointment.

The Board shall appoint the Chairman who shall be a Non-Executive Director. In the absence of the Chairman, the remaining members of the Committee present shall one other Non-Executive Director to chair the meeting.

Administration

Secretary - The Committee shall elect a member of the Committee to act as the Secretary.

Quorum- The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be three members.

Frequency of meetings - The Committee shall meet at least four times a year at appropriate times and otherwise as required.

Notice of meetings - Meetings of the Committee shall be summoned by the Secretary at the request of any of its members.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee and any other person required to attend, no later than five days before the date of the meeting. The agenda shall be circulated together with relevant supporting papers to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate.

Minutes of Meetings - The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.

Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee. Once approved, the minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board unless it would be inappropriate to do so in the opinion of the Chairman of the Risk & Compliance Committee.

Duties

The Committee shall:

- 1 Make recommendations to the Board concerning the Society's overall risk appetite, tolerance and strategy, and policies, taking account of the current and prospective financial environment and drawing on financial stability assessments such as those published by relevant industry and regulatory authorities including the Bank of England, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Financial Conduct Authority and other authoritative sources that may be relevant for the Society's risk policies.
- 2 Monitor, and advise the Board on, the current risk exposures of the Society and future risk strategy.
- 3 In relation to risk assessment and subject to overlap with the Audit Committee:
 - a) Keep under review the Society's overall risk assessment process that informs the board's decision making, ensuring both qualitative and quantitative metrics are used;
 - b) Review regularly and approve the parameters used in these measures and the methodology adopted; and
 - c) Set a standard for accurate and timely monitoring of large exposures and certain risk types of critical importance
- 4 Review the Society's capability to identify and manage new risks and risk types, in conjunction with the Audit Committee.
- 5 Before a decision to proceed is taken by the Board, advise the Board on proposed strategic transactions including significant acquisitions or disposals, ensuring that a due diligence appraisal of the proposition is undertaken, focussing in particular on risk aspects and implications for the risk appetite and tolerance of the Society, and taking independent external advice where appropriate and available.
- 6 Review reports on any material breaches of risk appetite and risk limits and the adequacy of proposed actions.

- 7 Keep under review the effectiveness of the Society's internal controls and risk management systems and review and approve the statements to be included in the annual report concerning internal control and risk management.
- 8 Provide qualitative and quantitative advice to the remuneration committee on risk weightings to be applied to performance objectives incorporated in executive remuneration
- 9 Review the adequacy and security of the Society's arrangements for its employees and contractors to raise concerns, in confidence, and under the protection of the Society, about possible wrongdoings in financial reporting or other matters. The Committee shall ensure that these arrangements allow proportionate and independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow up action.
- 10 Keep under review the Society's compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements. Receive reports on risk and compliance issues from any of the Society's business units as may be appropriate.
- 11 In relation to financial crime:
 - 12 Review the Society's procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud;
 - 13 Review the Society's procedures for the prevention and detection of bribery and corruption; and
 - 14 Review the Society's procedures for the prevention and detection of money laundering
- 15 Consider and approve the remit of the risk management function and ensure it has adequate resources and appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its function effectively and in accordance with the relevant professional standards. The committee shall also ensure the function has adequate independence and is free from management restrictions and other restrictions.
- 16 Review promptly all reports on the Society from the risk function.
- 17 Review and monitor management's responsiveness to the findings and recommendations of the risk function.
- 18 Ensure that the risk function has direct access to the Chairman and other members of the Committee and the Chairman and other members of the Committee have direct access to the risk function
- 19 Reporting responsibilities:
 - a) The Committee Chairman shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
 - b) The Committee shall make whatever reports to the Board it deems appropriate on any area of particular significance within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
 - c) The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area outside its remit where action or improvement is needed.

- d) The Committee shall produce a report of its activities and the Society's risk management and strategy to be included in the Society's annual report.
- e) The Directors report in the Annual Report and Accounts should set out risk management objectives and policies including in relation to financial instruments.

Other matters

The Committee shall:

- Be provided by the Society with sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Society's Secretariat for assistance as required.
- Be provided by the Society with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members.
- At least once a year, review its own performance, constitution, composition and terms of reference to assess its operational effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

Authority

The Committee is authorised by the Board:

- To seek any information it requires from any system, employee, contracted party or director of the Society in order to perform its duties.
- To obtain, at the Society's expense, external legal or other professional advice on any matter falling within its terms of reference.
- To call on any employee to attend a meeting of the Committee as and when required.
- To report in the Annual Report any disagreement between the Committee and the Board that cannot be resolved.

WITH PROFITS ADVISORY ARRANGEMENT

Purpose

The underlying purpose of the With-Profits Advisory Arrangement (“the Committee”) is to independently monitor and bring some independent judgment to the extent to which procedures, systems and controls are adequate and effective to enable National Friendly to comply with the requirements contained within the FCA Handbook over the management and governance of with profits business.

Membership

Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board in consultation with the Chairman.

The Committee shall comprise of at least two Non-Executive Directors. The With-Profits Actuary attends meetings of the Committee as appropriate. No member of the Committee may hold an Executive position within the Society, nor may any member be appointed if they have acted as a professional advisor to the Society within the year preceding a proposed first appointment to the Committee.

Only members of the Committee and the Secretary have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate. The Committee may co-opt any Non-Executive Director satisfying the requirements for membership to join the Committee for a meeting or any longer period. The Secretary shall inform the Board when any such co-option has taken place.

Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years (unless the Director is subject to annual election), which may be extended for two additional three-year periods and annually thereafter, provided the Non-Executive Director remains independent, as determined by the Board, throughout the period of appointment.

The Board shall appoint the Chairman who shall be a Non-Executive Director. In the absence of the Chairman, the remaining members of the Committee present shall one other Non-Executive Director to chair the meeting.

Administration

Secretary - The Committee shall elect a member of the Committee to act as the Secretary.

Quorum - The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two members.

Frequency of meetings - The Committee shall meet to review bonus recommendations, product projection rates at least once a year and further as required.

Notice of meetings - Meetings of the Committee shall be summoned by the Secretary at the request of any of its members or at the request of the external or internal auditors. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee and any other person required to attend. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

Minutes of Meetings - The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance. Minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated as soon as practicable to all members of the Committee, the Board and the With-Profits Actuary.

Duties

- 1 In advising and reporting to the Board, the Committee should monitor and consider all relevant issues, including but not limited to:
 - a) The rights, interests or expectations of different classes and generations of with profits policyholders.
 - b) The way in which the Society exercises discretion in the conduct of the with profits business.
 - c) The way in which the Society addresses competing or conflicting rights, interests or expectations of its policyholders (or groups of policyholders).
 - d) Any communication with policyholders relating to either the principles or practices set out in the PPFM.
 - e) Proposals from the With Profits Actuary for bonus rates, surrender values or market value adjustments in respect of with-profits policies.
 - f) Proposals for changes to the PPFM.
 - g) Compliance with PPFM.
- 2 The Committee shall make an annual report to with profits policyholders, recording any significant activity it has undertaken and highlighting any issues that it has raised with the Board

Other Matters

The Committee shall:

- Be provided by the Society with sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties.
- Be provided by the Society with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members.
- At least once a year, review its own performance, constitution, composition and terms of reference to assess its operational effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

Authority

The Committee is authorised by the Board:

- To seek any information it requires from any employee or director of the Society in order to perform its duties.
- To obtain, at the Society's expense, external legal or other professional advice on any matter falling within its terms of reference.
- To call on any employee to attend a meeting of the Committee as and when required.
- To report in the Annual Report any disagreement between the Committee and the Board that cannot be resolved.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Purpose

The Executive Committee forms part of the Society's documented internal corporate governance structure. The Board is the main decision making body of the Society and the Executive Committee, whilst not a sub-committee of the Board, is charged (either individually or collectively) with running the Society's business within the delegated authority of the Board.

Membership

Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board in consultation with the Chairman.

The Committee will consist of the Executive Directors and appointed members of Senior Management.

Only members of the Committee and the Secretary have the right to attend Committee meetings; other individuals may be invited to attend all or part of a meeting as appropriate.

The CEO will be Chairman. In the absence of the Chairman, the remaining members of the Committee present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.

Administration

Secretary - The Committee shall elect a member of the Committee to act as the Secretary.

Quorum - The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be three members of which at least one will be an Executive Director.

Frequency of meetings - The Executive Committee shall meet sufficiently regularly to discharge its duties being at least twelve times a year or more frequently if required.

Minutes of Meetings – Minutes of meetings shall be made and circulated as soon as practicable to all members of the Committee and to members of the Board on request.

Duties

- 1 Managing the business on a day to day basis and reviewing performance against budget.
- 2 Reviewing management information identifying major variances and rectifying adverse variances where appropriate.
- 3 Reviewing the Society's strategic plan with recommendations, modifications and developments being presented to the Board for consideration.
- 4 Implementing and maintaining an effective member relations strategy.

- 5 Overseeing the strategic approach to regulatory and legislative matters.
- 6 Reviewing strategic projects and overseeing their return on investments and their performance against delivery time and budget.
- 7 Placing business development proposals, including new products, significant changes to existing products, the formation of additional subsidiary operations and other associations with third parties before the Board for their approval and instruction on future reporting.
- 8 Review and approve all new business relationships/partnerships making presentation to the Board where matters reserved for the Board require.
- 9 Establishing systems for business relationships/partnerships, particularly outsourced arrangements, so that regulatory obligations are complied with, contractual service standards are delivered, and business needs met.
- 10 Considering the emoluments of each Non-Executive Director seeking advice as appropriate from the Remuneration committee on the alignment of the emoluments with the remuneration policy, and recommend the proposals to the Board for approval.
- 11 Embedding, maintaining and promoting a culture of risk awareness and ethical behaviour for the Society's staff to follow in pursuit of its business goals and which is conducive to treating customers fairly
- 12 Undertaking tasks delegated to it by the Board as required.
- 13 Apprising the Board of all significant matters about which the Board should be aware, not limited to those matters formally reserved for the Board or falling outside the Board's stated risk appetite.
- 14 Enabling the Board to exercise its role and discharge its responsibilities effectively.

In making decisions the Committee will be mindful of the schedule of matters reserved for the Board and of approved individual financial sign off limits. The Executive will not action any decisions falling within the former and/or outside of the latter without prior Board approval.

Other Matters

The Executive Committee shall:

- Be provided by the Society with sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties.
- At least once a year, review its own performance, constitution, composition and terms of reference to assess its operational effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

Authority

The Executive Committee is authorised by the Board:

- To seek any information it requires from any employee or director of the Society in order to perform its duties.
 - To call on any employee to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee as and when required.
